Annotation: Maqsud Shaikhzoda's contribution to the prosperity of Uzbek literature, culture was deservedly honored by independent Uzbekistan and its government. A row school and streets are named after him. In this article, the work of Maqsud Shaykhzoda spoke about the importance of qualities such as courage, fairness, thoughtful thinking, popularism, expressed in the image of the heroes of the work in Uzbek literature.

Keywords: poetry, uzbek poetry, poetic cells, poetic collection, sense of sophistication, spiritual extension, urination, direction, artistry.

Shaikhzoda stood out from all of us not only in the sense of reason, but also in the sense of siymo. The idle question of the autonomous mouth did not seem to melt into it. On the contrary, everywhere, all the time, in all environments and conditions, the feeling of pride, which has made his heart prosperous, has been exasperated. He leaned, even proud, and said that he was Azerbaijani, coming from Azerbaijan. While reciting the same words, Maqsud's face seemed as if the sun in the sky had moved (Maqsud from a page of memoirs about the Sheikhzoda. Maqsud Shaykhzadeh [1908.25.10 (7.11) – 1967.19.2] – poet, playwright, literary critic, translator, educator. Honored Artist of Uzbekistan (1964). Graduated from dorilmuallimin in Baku (1925). Arrested in 1927 as a member of the counterrevolutionary organization, he was exiled to Tashkent in February 1928. After a short period of study at the Oriental Faculty of the University of Central Asia (1928), he served in the editorial offices of the "eastern truth" (1929-32), "Red Uzbekistan", "young Lenin" newspapers (1932), "Gulistan" magazine (1933-34). Graduated from Baku Pedagogical Institute (1934). He worked as a researcher at the Institute of language and literature in Tashkent (1935 -38). Since 1938, he has been a teacher at the Tashkent Pedagogical Institute named after Nizami. Maqsd Shaykhzoda died on February 19, 1967. He was buried in the chigatoy cemetery. Awarded the order of merit (2001). One of the streets in Tashkent is named after Shaykhzoda.

* * *

There will be lifetimes,
Alive is dead.
There will be deaths,
The dead man is alive.
Uzbekistan
Air that is also stored in a closed crate,
But the air breath that he lost,
To say it air, noravo himself,
The Bandit chokes longing.
He is a carefree, innocent, like a dead wine,
Neither drunkenness nor excitement.
Whereas, in a free flight,
Elga ran while playing as a partner,
The piece of the well, on a huge scale –
In the barren deserts, the sands have cooled.
Or evening time with shabboda
Kissed girls under the plantains,
Bonfire when burning in the gorges,
A little bit of isinga ran into the fire.
That's what Bari was. Bari truth...
But it is remembered in dreams only.
A piece of air choked in the chest
The claim that one cohorts are free...
So: a tinted Cup in water
There is a legend of floods, streams,
In a broken mirror that is blurred
Khushroi has the ruins of Husni,
In today's silence, if you listen, dildor,
Yesterday's weddings have a Taron.
